What's unique about Queen Mary University of London?

Simply put we are at the heart of the East End Community. Tracing our roots back to St Bartholomew's Hospital in 1123 to the present day as the UK's most diverse university, Queen Mary serves and shapes its East London community.

Our Summer School allows you to experience life in London at a research-intensive university, learning alongside students from across the globe you can create the skills and networks to enhance your future career.

For a summer school experience at a university as unique as you are, come to Queen Mary

A welcome from our President and Principal

Home to staff and students from 162 countries, our campus creates an environment where students, staff and visitors have the opportunity to learn from and respect each other's diverse cultures, acting as a gateway to the rest of Europe.

As part of our Summer School, you will have the opportunity to live and study in one of the world's most exciting cities and make friends from around the globe. You will also benefit from the full support of our staff through our Summer Welcome and social programmes.

We look forward to welcoming you this summer.
